FINIS.

In view of the reference to the $2½ by the Pelican Co. in the "Numismatist" for April 1909, page 100, the following is reprinted from my auction sale catalogue, Dec. 21st, 1898. Lot No. 33. Lyman H. Low.

California Pattern. PELICAN CO.--1849. A six-pointed str. R. CALIFORNIA—2½ DOLLS. In field, 21 CARATS. Very fine. Brass. 18.

The preceding piece, to the best of my knowledge and belief, now appears for the first time, and when considering that coin collecting has been actively followed in this country for upwards of 40 years and this pattern has remained unnoticed, I think rarity in the highest degree is established for it. I consider it worth many times its weight in gold.
